BIG BIZ TRUCKS AND PLUTES' AUTOS KILL HUNDREDS IN CHI.

Coroner Hoffman Lays Blame for Automobile Deaths —107 Killed in Six Months—Suggests Ways to Cut Down List of Victims.

The pleasure car of the silk stocking and the auto truck of big business have killed more people on the streets of the city of Chicago during the past two years than all of Germany's Zeppelins have killed in England during the same time. These facts are contained in a report given out by Coroner Peter M. Hoffman today.

Congestion in the loop, carelessness of drivers, lack of safety devices and absence of laws which would keep the unfit from behind the wheel of a deadly auto are the causes which pile up hundreds of victims every year.

The killings by autos have jumped from 67 during the first six months of 1915 to 107 during the first six months of 1916, Coroner Hoffman says. The total for 1916 is going to run over 225 dead.

The auto trucks which crash about the city, heavy, unwieldy machines which can neither be stopped nor
